Visual Key

The COURSE NUMBER is the subject area and number for the course.

The name of the PROGRAM that the courses under this header belong to.

An ASTERISK (*) indicates this course has a prerequisite, which can be found at the link listed above.

The COURSE NAME is the title of the course.

The START DATE for this section of the course.

The CREDIT HOURS is the number of credit hours for the course.

The SECTION NUMBER is used to identify your course selection. An "L" after a section number indicates it is a lab. Labs generally have a corresponding lecture section. See NOTES associated with the section.

The FEE is the amount of lab fees and/or added cost fees for this course (in addition to the tuition charge).

Important NOTES associated with this section(s).

The DAY(s) this section meets. See above for abbreviation key and appropriate NOTE for clarification.

Specialty courses such as ONLINE, OPEN ENTRY, and ARRANGED. For ARRANGED courses contact the instructor to set up time and location.

The INSTRUCTOR is the person assigned to instruct this section at the time the schedule was published. If "staff" is indicated, an instructor has not been assigned at the time of publication.

The LOCATION is where the course meets. See the location key above for clarification.

The END DATE for this section of the course.

The SHADING indicates this section is taught at an extended campus location.

OFFICE INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

NOTE: OPEN ENTRY COURSES ARE NOT ONLINE COURSES. Students enrolled in an OPEN ENTRY course must report to an Open Entry lab (OEL) during the first week of class at one of these locations: Battle Creek Campus, Eastern Academic, Fehsenfeld, or the Grahl Center. You will need to complete an orientation, sign a Learning Agreement, and pick up a syllabus. There are due dates for all assignments. Any questions, call 269-565-2049.
